Read the paragraph below. In that paragraph, everybody's favorite adventurer, Mrs. Waffenschmidt, offers clues about the place she is visiting today. Use those clues to help you figure out where in the world Mrs. Waffenschmidt is. Write your answer on the line at the bottom of the page.

I'm off again on another exciting adventure! This very unusual city is called the "City of Water." Can you believe there aren't cars here? Everybody gets around by boat in this city, which has 150 canals and 400 bridges. I took a ride in one of the long black boats called a gondola. The gondolier -- the person who gave me the boat ride -- wore a traditional striped shirt and a straw hat with a long black ribbon on it. He used long poles to steer the boat through the narrow canals. This city of water, which includes more than 100 islands, is sinking about 1/3 of an inch each year. The city was settled in the 8th century.

Do you know where am I visiting today? Where is it?
